

Traditional end to the 2017/8 Christmas Period

EPIPHANY CAROL SERVICE at St NICHOLAS'

Led by our choir master
Dr Peter Wilton

A large congregation, including welcomed visitors from St Mark's, enjoyed the traditional service even if some of the ceremony of the service at Sandringham, reported in the Times, was missing!

Our thanks go to Peter and all the those who took part and also to Stuart for the excellent photograph.

Today being the Feast of the Epiphany, a Sung Eucharist was held in the Chapel Royal, St. James's Palace, when the customary offerings of Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh were made on behalf of The Queen by Air Vice-Marshal David Hobart and Brigadier Jonathan Bourne-May (Gentlemen Ushers to Her Majesty).

The Right Reverend and Rt. Hon. the Lord Chartres (Dean of Her Majesty's Chapels Royal) was the Celebrant and presented the Offerings, assisted by the Reverend Canon Paul Wright (Sub-Dean of Her Majesty's Chapels Royal) and the Reverend Richard Bolton and the Reverend William Whitcombe (Priests in Ordinary).

The Queen's Body Guard of the Yeomen of the Guard was on duty in the Chapel.
